

Temple Ceremony Unites Couple

The Salt Lake LDS temple was the scene of the December wedding of Miss Gwendolyn Seely, 544 East First South, Salt Lake City, and Kenneth Goates, Lehi.

Miss Seely is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Leland Seely, Brigham City, and Mr. Goates' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Goates, also of Lehi.

Following the wedding vows, wedding breakfast was served at Harmon's Cafe. The same evening the Brigham Fourth LDS ward was the scene of a wedding reception held in honor of the "just-weds."

A garden gate, archway and fence decked with blooms was setting for the receiving line.

The bride was lovely in traditional white satin and Chantilly lace. She carried an orchid corsage surrounded with miniature chrysanthemums for her bridal bouquet.

Her sister, Karen Seely, stood as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Ada Olsen, Iline and Alice Goates. All wore lime green taffeta gowns with deep green velvet cummerbunds. They carried large chrysanthemums.

Flower girl was Jan Seely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Seely.

Mother of the bride chose an old rose lace gown and Mrs. Goates wore a navy blue model. Their corsages were of carnations and roses.

Lamar Goates was best man with Lee Seely as usher.

Displayed during the evening was the beautiful three tiered wedding cake. Rosebuds and silver leaves adorned the cake and a miniature bride and bridegroom stood upon the topmost layer.

Mrs. Lee Seely was at the guest book and Glen Seely was master of ceremonies.

Program included a solo by Mrs. Alice Goates of Lehi, followed by Thompson family members entertaining with songs, dances and toasts.

Jane Thompson, student director of the BYU in Provo, composed numbers which were sung and danced by her two brothers, a sister, her father and mother. Toasts completed the program.

Arranging the many lovely gifts presented to the young couple were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Richman and Mrs. Pansy Seely. Refreshments were under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Merritt.

For honeymoon travel, the new Mrs. Goates chose a brown jersey wool with matching accessories.

They are now at home at 544 East First South, Salt Lake City, until February. They will then make their home in Provo until the bridegroom graduates from BYU in August.

TO RESIDE IN SALT LAKE CITY—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Goates, recent newlyweds, are now at home in Salt Lake City following their December marriage in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Mrs. Goates is the former Gwendolyn Seely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Leland Seely, Brigham City
