

IF YOU
TO GO
OTTER.

circled letters
prise answer, as e above cartoon.

Answers tomorrow)

ARDON

BOOBY

gs
ying

ylmar youth last

said Michael and Joyce D. known as Joyce
each charged of robbery and in the slaying
Warmuth, 19,
ed last Aug. 7.

s been returned
s twice to help
arch for War-
which she said
a culvert in the north of Los An-ody has never

was driving
r when arrested
Angeles author-adition proceed-postponed pend-ne of a trial in

ermits
ring
rkeys

Fish and Game
aid Idaho's pop-turkeys has intently to permit
nting.
planting of tur-
was made in

BOISE AND REGIONAL OBITUARIES

The Statesman does not charge for publication of obituaries.
Paid funeral notices are accepted as advertising.

Katheryn J. S. Richman

Services for Katheryn Joyce Seely Richman, 43, 5111 Mountain View Drive, who died Monday in a Salt Lake City hospital, will be conducted at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Northview LDS Chapel in Boise by Bishop R. Dale Olpin. Interment will be at Brigham City, Utah.

She was born April 22, 1928, at Malta in Cassia County. She was married Nov. 22, 1948, to Lynn Thomas Richman at Las Vegas. Their marriage was solemnized in the Logan (Utah) Temple on Nov. 20, 1958. She was an active member of the Boise Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 19th Ward, and she worked in many positions in the church.

She is survived by her husband of Boise; three sons, Jeffrey, on a mission in North Germany, Larry and Ricky Lynn, and a daughter, Joy Lynn, all of Boise; her parents, Grace Thompson Seely and F. Leland Seely, both of Brigham City, Utah; four brothers, Glen Seely of Salt Lake City, Kent Seely with the Navy in Cuba, John Leland Seely of New York City, and James Seely of Brigham City; and two sisters, Gwen Seely Goats of Salt Lake City and Karen Seely Galloway of Indianapolis.

Arrangements are under the direction of Relyea Mortuary.

Mabel M. Thompson

PARMA — Services for Mrs. Mabel M. Thompson, 60, Route 2, Parma, who died Monday in a Caldwell hospital, will be conducted at the Parma Dakan Funeral Chapel at 2 p.m. Thursday by the Rev. Ray Hibbard of the Church of the Nazarene. Interment will be at Parma cemetery.

Mrs. Thompson was born April 12, 1911, in Cedar Ridge, Colo., and was reared in Colorado. She was married Dec. 25, 1941, in Delta, Colo., to John F. Thompson. The couple lived in Delta until 1946, when they moved to Parma, and since had lived here.

Surviving in addition to Mr. Thompson are two sons, A. L. Kratzer of Parma and Miles F. Thompson of New Plymouth; a stepson, Lowell Thompson of Grand Junction, Iowa; a daughter, Mrs. Charlotte Cremer of Anchorage, Alaska; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Mollie Peiffer of Hodgekiss, Colo.; a sister, Mrs. Roy Anderson of Seattle; eight grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Memorial may be given to the Heart Fund.

Ruth Ayres

Services for Ruth Ayres, 74, of 1310 Colorado, who died

Belle M. Thompson

NAMPA — Services for Mrs. Belle M. Thompson, 88, of 215 Juniper, who died Sunday in a Nampa hospital after an illness, will be conducted at the Flahiff Funeral Chapel at 2 p.m. Thursday by the Rev. Ernest E. Wilson of the First United Methodist Church. Interment will be at Kohlerlawn.

Mrs. Thompson was born Aug. 2, 1883, in Hampton, Iowa, and later moved to Nebraska. She was married Sept. 3, 1903, in Valentine, Neb., to Robert Thompson, and they lived on a ranch near Valentine until coming to Nampa in 1935. Mr. Thompson died June 7, 1942.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Surviving are a son, Robert W. Thompson of Nampa; four daughters, Mrs. L. A. (Ella) Barger, Mrs. Ruth Williams, and Mrs. Walter (Echo) Borchert, all of Nampa, and Mrs. Frank (Elsie) Alcorn of Portland; 15 grandchildren; 31 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a son, a daughter, and a great-great-granddaughter.

Pallbearers will be grandsons Ray Thompson, Art Borchert, Ron Thompson, Jack Thompson, Douglas Borchert, and Mike Thompson. Friends may call at the chapel today and until the service Thursday.

Esther Marie Harris

NAMPA — Services for Mrs. Esther Marie Harris, 62, of Roy, Utah, who died Sunday in a Roy hospital, will be conducted at the Alsip Funeral Chapel at 2 p.m. Thursday by the Rev. J. Sydney Carnes of the First Christian Church. Interment will be at Kohlerlawn.

Mrs. Harris was born July 5, 1909, in Lebanon, Kan., to Marion and Lydia Frazier Good. She was married Jan. 2, 1941, in Twin Falls to James Robert Harris. The couple lived in Nampa until moving to Roy in 1950. She was employed there until ill health forced her to retire in July, 1970.

Surviving in addition to Mr. Harris are a son, James Robert Harris Jr., of Ogden, Utah; four daughters, Mrs. Iola Eno of Idaho City, Mrs. Iona Klines of Nampa, Mrs. Ruth Vaughn of Avondale, Ariz., and Mrs. Marie Williams of Nampa; two brothers, Kenneth Good of Caldwell and William Good, in Arkansas; five sisters, Mrs. Freda Reynolds of Bellingham, Wash., Mrs. Faye Grass of Norris, S.D., Mrs. Eona Ernest of Portland, Mrs. Wilma Bruce, in California, and Mrs. Etta Mae Gudy, in Minnesota; 18 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Charles A. Dice

RIGGINS — Graveside services for Charles Ashley Dice, 87, who died Monday at his home near Riggins, will be conducted at 1 a.m. today at Riggins. Walker Chapel in McCall is arranging services.

Mr. Dice was born Jan. 21, 1884, at Manville, Ill. He came West in 1905 where he helped construct canals in Southwest Idaho. After homesteading near Roswell, he returned to Illinois where he married Anna Seif on Jan. 18, 1912. She died in 1928.

He married Ada Johnson in 1934 and the couple farmed near Parma. Since 1940, they had made their home on Rapid River near Riggins.

Survivors besides his wife include a son, Howard Dice, Pollock; a brother, Harry Dice, Albuquerque, N.M.; four grandchildren; Joyce Owens, Pollock, Carol Beach, Seattle, Greg and Charles Dice, both of Lewiston, and six great-grandchildren.

O. B. (Slim) Powrie

CASCADE — Graveside services for Omar Bruce (Slim) Powrie, 76, formerly of Cascade, who died

Rev. Andrew H. Hadsell

Services for the Rev. Andrew H. Hadsell, 69, of 1609 North Twenty-third, who died Monday in a Boise hospital, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday at the First Baptist Church by Dr. Mack McCray of the church. Interment will be at Joplin Cemetery. Arrangements are by Alden-Waggoner Chapel.

He was born March 22, 1902, in Buckeye, Ariz., and went to school in Buckeye and Phoenix. He graduated from Redlands University, Biola Bible School in San Francisco and Central Baptist Seminary in 1937. He married Hulda I. Morris on May 7, 1937, at Kansas City, Mo. He pastored at West End Baptist Church in Phoenix, and Baptist churches in Melba and Midvale. For many years he was a missionary in Arizona for American Home Missions Society. He came to Boise in 1945, and for the past 19 years has been custodian at the First Baptist Church in Boise and teacher of the junior department.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church, Idaho Association for the Physically Handicapped, Ada County Association for Mentally Retarded Children, committeeman for Troop No. 90 of the Boy Scouts, and served several times as deacon in his church.

He is survived by his wife of Boise; a son, Andrew W. Hadsell of Boise; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Sutterlin of Phoenix, and Mrs. Idora P. Russell of Prescott, Ariz., and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by two brothers and a sister.

Active pallbearers will be Frank Lebert, George Heckert, Charles Whipple, Conway Pierce, Louis Epeldi and Everett Dille. Honorary pallbearers will be Carl Burt, C. Calvin Gardner, George Moore, Louis Phelps, Charles Smith and Byron Berry.

Mrs. Margaret B. Paris

WEISER — Services for Mrs. Margaret Brown Paris, 74, a long-time Weiser area resident who died Sunday at an Ontario nursing home, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Northam-Jones Chapel by the Rev. Joseph Waggoner. Interment will follow at Fairview.

She was born Aug. 8, 1897, at Tarsney, Mo. She was married to Dee M. Paris on March 18, 1936, at Independence, Mo. The couple lived at Huntington, Ore., until moving to Weiser in March, 1939.

She was a member of the Weiser Christian Church.

Surviving besides her husband of Weiser are a son, Wayne Paris of Boise; a daughter, Mrs. John (Deanna) Sheridan of Cleveland,

Death Notices

John Bartmess, 82, Route 1, Boise, died Tuesday in a Boise hospital. Services pending, Robinson Chapel of the Chimes.

John J. "Jack" Gregory, 80, 917 Pueblo, died Tuesday in a Boise hospital. Services pending, Alden-Waggoner Chapel.

Mrs. Nyla Price, 61, 3603 North Avenue, died Tuesday in a Boise hospital. Services pending, Alden-Waggoner Chapel.

Andrea McArthur, 19, McCall, formerly of Costa Mesa, Calif., died at a McCall hospital Monday of natural causes. Arrangements pending, Walker Chapel, McCall.

Homer William Belcher, 66, Ontario, died Monday at the Ontario hospital. Services pending, Ontario Chapel of the Roses.

Samuel Ramsey Fretwell, 57, Route 2, Parma, died Tuesday of natural causes while en route to a Caldwell hospital. Services pending, Dakan Funeral Chapel, Caldwell.

Carl S. Tyler, 79, 805 Warm Springs Avenue, died Tuesday at a Boise nursing home. Services pending, Summers Funeral Home.

Myrtle Irene Waters, 79, Seattle, died in a Seattle hospital. Services pending, Relyea Chapel.

Kumano Kawasaki, 90, Weiser, died Tuesday at a Weiser hospital. Services pending, Northam-Jones Funeral Home.

Harry (Darby) Ranft

PLACERVILLE — Services for Harry (Darby) Ranft, 87, who died Monday at his home in Placerville, will be conducted at 1 p.m. Thursday at Emmanuel Episcopal Church in Placerville by the Rev. I. O. Wood. Interment will be at Placerville.

He was born April 10, 1884, at the Star Ranch three miles south of Placerville. He attended school on the ranch and at Quartzburg. He worked in the woods for the Boise Payette Lumber Co. at New Centerville. He also worked in mines at Quartzburg, Placerville and Atlanta, and in 1916 he managed a placer mine in British Columbia. He returned to Placerville and worked in the logging camps until he retired in 1950. He was a member of the Placerville City Council for 24 years and a member of the Placerville Boosters Club.

Survivors include several cousins.

Pallbearers will be John Banninger, Bruce McKenzie, Earl Olson, Jack Craig, Louis Kennaly and Fred Bell.

Friends may call at Summers Funeral Home from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. today.

Kathryn Fern Perkins

ONTARIO — Services for Mrs. Kathryn Fern Perkins, 37, who died Saturday at her home in Ontario, will be conducted at the Berry Funeral Home in Salisbury, Mo. Local arrangements are under the direction of the Ontario Chapel of the Roses.

Mrs. Perkins was born Nov. 26, 1934, at Forest Green, Mo. She was married to Bill Perkins April 4, 1952 at Yuma, Ariz. She was a member of the Lutheran Church in Burns, Ore.

She is survived by her husband, Bill Perkins, Ontario; a son, Joel Perkins, U.S. Army, Ft. Lewis, Wash.; a daughter, Kathy Perkins, at home; her father, Louis Leach, Forest Green; four sisters, Mrs. Betty Treaster, Mrs. Evelyn Treaster and Mrs. Thelma Carswell, all Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Rose Mary Panell, Booneville, Mo., and a brother, James Leach, Booneville.