

JOHN SAMUEL RICHMAN
5 SEPTEMBER 1877 - 23 SEPTEMBER 1963

ISABELL MILES RICHMAN
6 JULY 1879 - 28 DECEMBER 1965

Samuel Richman was the first child of John William Richman and Jane Charlotte Sinfield Richman, he was born 5 September 1877, in Paradise. He lived his entire life in Paradise.

He was drafted into the Army in his early years. He married Isabell Miles August 5, 1901. They bought a little red house a block west of his father and mother.

He had a little farm that he worked all his life.

Some say he was kinda hard to talk to, and didn't always agree with everything or everybody. Just as an example he fought with Hillary Obrary every watering turn.

Sam, because he was the oldest, became the executor of his father and mother's home and surroundings. So when the family sold it to Norm and Shirley Pearce, Sam was the one they bought it off of.

Sam and Isabell had five children, LeRoy, Lyle, Jane, Burdett and Louise

Sam passed away at the age of 86 in the Logan hospital. Sam and Isabell are both buried in the Paradise Cemetery.
