Dear Lynn:

Your service on the High Council of this great stake has been a great blessing--not only to us, but to all the members of the stake. You have been a devoted and faithful servant of the Lord. The efficient manner in which you fulfilled your assignments has been an example to all, and very pleasing to the stake presidency. We have felt of your loyalty, your love, and of your devotion. We deeply appreciate this, and your service these past five years.

We express also our thanks and appreciation to your lovely wife, Mary, for her devotion and willingness to share you with so many others during this time of service. Would you kindly express our love to her?

May the Lord's choicest blessings be with you and your beautiful family wherever you go. You have great service yet to give, and the Lord will need you in His service, as you remain true and faithful to His commandments.

We miss you on the Council.

Sincerely, your brethren
