J. Leland Seely

Brigham Pair Who Grew Up, Served Together, Home Again

By RUTH S. JENSEN

BRIGHAM CITY — Two young Brigham City men whose lives have been closely interwoven for the past 16 years arrived home a few days ago after four-year tours of duty with the U. S. Navy.

Fast friends since they entered the Lincoln Elementary School together as first graders, the two are J. Leland Seely, who was discharged as an aviation electronics technician first class, and Richard C. Cheney, hospitalman first class.

Seely is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Leland Seely, and Cheney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Cheney, all of Brigham City.

Separated for a short time when the Cheney's moved to Hurum a few years ago, the two attended the University of Utah together, then enlisted for Navy duty on the same day, Jan. 10, 1951.

Both took boot training at San off nearly four years ago.

Mary Sewell has been elected president of the Women's Faculty League at Box Elder High with Mrs. Sam Gordon as vice president and Norma Jensen as the secretary.

A clothing and baked goods sale will be held Saturday beginning at 10 a.m. at Block's Men's Store here. The Xi Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi is the sponsor.

Serving in Korea is Pfc. Marion Bruce Carr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Carr of Brigham. He has been in the service almost 14 months.

The regular meeting of the Box Elder Junior Chamber of Commerce, originally to have been held today, has been postponed a week.
